

Mr Thor,

We will miss your roar!

We'll miss your selfless guard dog ways, we'll miss your romantic guard dog gaze, that look you give every soul you trust, your love and companionship are just a must!

From the very first day that we met, I knew my heart was full and set, you were the one at the bottom of the pile, with pee on your head and a very fake smile.

You were scared and unsure of everything around, except for my hands picking you up off the ground. You nuzzled in tightly, you buried yourself deep, you looked at me with that gaze and I thought..."WOW I'm in deep!" I thought to myself, "he's going to change my life", "he's going to make me laugh and keep my smile so bright". And that you did Mr Thor, as well as so much more....

You provided me comfort on my hardest days, you helped me raise a child when I was afraid, you taught me to be brave and to fight for what's right, you taught me patience and loyalty from brand new heights.

You gave me a paw when I didn't have a hand, you gave me the motivation to always stand, you taught me patience and understanding beyond your years, maybe it has something to do with those big beautiful ears?

You a wise old man now Mr Thor, it's time to rest and suffer no more. I can't ever thank you for all that you have done, for the lives you have changed, from all your loved ones. You are treasured forever in so many hearts and know Mr Thor we'll even miss your very stinky farts.

Love always,
Your Mama
